

It has been one year since we had our wedding at the Knickerbocker and we are back to celebrate our one-year anniversary. We are flooded with so many outstanding memories. Steve and I have shared many great times together with Stanley, Thomas and the staff. Countless hours have been spent relaxing on the patio, swinging in the hammock, playing checkers and enjoy the beautiful surroundings. Most importantly, Stanley and Thomas have helped us celebrate our engagement and wedding.

The Knickerbocker has been our home away from home. The idea of having our wedding reception at the Knickerbocker made perfect sense. We never could have imagined the weekend could be so awesome.

Stanley and Thomas made the entire wedding experience exceptional...everything from the planning and preparation to the rehearsal dinner and finally the wedding. They worked hard to accommodate our every desire. Whatever requests we made, they bent over backwards to suit our needs beyond expectation. In addition to suiting our needs, Stanley and Thomas worked with our out-of-town guests to help make hotel accommodations at near by facilities.

Steve and I decided to make our wedding an intimate experience with family and very close friends. One of my fondest memories of the weekend was the time spent with family and friends. We booked the mansion and carriage house for family and the wedding party to stay for the weekend. It was so nice to have everyone so close and to be able to spend time reminiscing together. It made our wedding an experience, not just a day to rush and try to visit with guests. We had time to relax with the wedding party and family.

Stanley and Thomas created an ambience for our rehearsal dinner that was so romantic and intimate. Again, they tended to every detail...nothing was left out. The patio sparkled with votive candles while classical music hummed in the background. The service was awesome. It was so nice to be able to linger around after and continue to visit with family. A group of us gathered in the family room that evening and continued to visit. Up to the last hour, Stanley and Thomas continued to make us feel at home.

The morning of our wedding, Stanley and Thomas were up earlier than the bride and groom preparing for the big day. A wonderful breakfast was prepared for everyone and consideration for all my requests was met without any hesitation.

The day could not have been more perfect. We did not have any glitches. The entire day ran smoothly. Everyone had a great time.

So here we are one year later, greeted by our friends Thomas, Stanley and Laurie...our room waiting with champagne and an anniversary card.... See you next year!
